

This question paper contains 2 printed pages.

6911

Your Roll No.....

A

M.A./ I
PSYCHOLOGY - Course PS - I
(Cognitive Psychology)
(Admissions of 2008 and onwards)

Time : 3 hours

Maximum Marks : 75

(Write your Roll No. on the top immediately on receipt of this question paper.)

All sections are compulsory.

Section-A

All questions are compulsory

Each question carries 10 marks

1. Provide experimental evidence for visuospatial sketchpad and phonological system of working memory

OR

Critically evaluate Baddeley's working memory model.

2. Discuss the information processing approaches and their significance for cognitive psychology.

OR

How did connectionist perspective emerged? Explain its contribution in understanding mental processes.

3. Explain semantic and episodic memories. Highlight the importance of organizational factors in retrieval of information.

OR

Distinguish between declarative and procedural memories. Discuss the role of mnemonics in learning and memory.

4. Discuss the significance of dual task paradigm in research on attention. Cite research to substantiate your answer.

Or

Citing relevant examples explain the top-down and bottom up process in perception.

5. Give a critique of the cognitive and biological perspectives to the study of language.

Or

Discuss the cognitive processes involved in text processing.

Section B

All questions are compulsory

Each question carries 5 marks

1. Discuss the importance of mood in memory.

OR

Explain the features of eyewitness memory

2. Distinguish between classical and instrumental learning.

OR

Explain probability learning.

3. Discuss the cognitive consequences of bilingualism.

Or

What is Transformational Generative Grammar?

4. How do people use means-end analysis in everyday problem solving?

Or

Discuss the relevance of research on expertise in cognitive psychology.

5. Write a brief note on change blindness.

Or

How is perception disrupted?