'I just don't understand, say Miss Eleanor Jane. All the other colored women I know love children. The way you feel is something unnatural. I love children, say Sofia. But all the colored women that say they love yours is lying.'

Discuss Alice Walker's portrayal of Sofia in The Color Purple as a counter to the stereotype of the loyal and caring African-American woman working in white people's homes.

- (b) Comment on the role of the Fugitive Slave Law in betraying the hope of escaped and freed slaves in the North in Harriet Jacob's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl.

OR

'The woman who has sold herself for an establishment, in what is she superior to those we may not name?'

Comment on Florence Nightingale's perception of marriage as prostitution in Cassandra.

- (c) 'What could love, the unsolved mystery, count for in the face of this possession of self-assertion which she suddenly recognized as the strongest impulse of her being!'

Analyse Kate Chopin's rejection of romantic love as trivial as compared to a woman's right to self-assertion.

OR

'Now why should that man have fainted ? But he did, and right across my path by the wall, so that I had to creep over him every time!'

Comment on the freedom from patriarchal power that the woman experiences through her madness at the end of Charlotte Perkins Gilman's 'The Yellow Wallpaper'. (15×3=45)

2. (a) In A Room of One's Own, Woolf has been asked to speak on the topic 'Women and Fiction'. Her thesis is that 'a woman must have money and a room of her own if she is to write fiction'. Analyse this statement.

OR

What according to Gilbert and Gubar are the ways in which 19th century women writers challenge their socially prescribed subordination ? (8)

- (b) Why is the genre of autobiography specially suited to women's writing ?

OR

How did the reform movements of the 19th century in India influence women's writing ? (7)

P.T.O.

3. (a) In Aurora Leigh, the poet presents an argument on the kind of poetry that should be written in contemporary times. How do her recommendations differ from conventional poetic preferences?

OR

- (b) Examine the way in which Sylvia Plath's poetry deploys the autobiographical mode in order to analyse her own darkest dilemmas and urges.

(20)

4. (a) By embedding Anna Wulf's psyche in the social and political movements of her time, Lessing suggests that the individual is inevitably shaped by history. Discuss with reference to the Red Notebook in Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook.

OR

- (b) Discuss The Golden Notebook as Anna Wulf's struggle to integrate her fragmented identity.
